DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

The amendment made to Figure 14, or more specifically the addition of reference characters 34, B and I, is accepted.

Specification

The amendment made to the specification, in the last paragraph of page 3, extending to page 4, and in the last paragraph of page 5, is accepted.

Claims

The removal of the term "human grounding point", and the cancellation of claims 5, 8, and 11-26 are accepted.

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-4, 6, 7, 9, 10, and 27-31 are allowed.
2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:
3. The prior art relied upon in the first office action rejection by Jordan (5,191,159) no longer teaches all the claimed elements of the independent claim 1, and no other prior art references could be found that teach said claimed elements, therefore the independent claim and its dependent claims are considered allowable.

4. In terms of the independent claim 1, Jordan fails to teach of an acoustic stringed instrument with a sound chamber, and the described chinrest being clamped to the body of the instrument, and easy removable. The US patents to Vochezer (6,268,555), Kaman (5,415,070), and Wolf (4,535,259), teach of an acoustic stringed instrument with a clamped chinrest, but fail to teach of an integrated pickup system. The US patent to Armond (2,486,264) teaches an acoustic stringed instrument with a chinrest, and a microphone or pickup system attached to the body of the instrument, but does not teach of the chinrest and microphone pickup system integrated together, only of the wire connected to the pickup unit being thread under the chinrest, nor does Armond provide proof that the chinrest is clamped to the body of the instrument and can be easily removed. Therefore, independent claim 1, and its dependent claims are deemed allowable.

5. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
